

Elevate Your Security Operations

Stratascale's services transform fragmented security operations into a integrated, intelligence-driven solution that drives tangible risk reduction.

Services Built for a New Era of Cyber Resilience

Traditional security operations are no match for today's threat landscape. Stratascale's services extend well beyond standard alerting and incident response. By fusing leading MDR capabilities with advanced services like cyber controls hardening, we deliver an integrated and intelligence-driven solution specifically designed to adapt to emerging threats and prepare you for what's next.

24/7 Managed Detection & Response

Continuous monitoring, alert triage, and threat detection through a combination of automation and human intervention.

Incident Response Retainer

Built-in IR support includes event triage, forensics, containment, and remediation recommendations.

Cyber Threat Intelligence

Our analysts leverage advanced technologies and cyber research to identify industry-specific threats to your data, systems, and users that can then be used to resolve identified issues and inform defense strategies.

Cyber Control Hardening

Our methodical, threat-informed defense strategy aligns your security tool controls with frameworks like NIST CSF, CIS, and MITRE for structured risk reduction.

Unify. Automate. Defend.

Through leading technology and human insight, we transform security operations into a strategic asset that boosts cyber resilience, strengthens business continuity, and protects revenue. We integrate cybersecurity efforts across teams, tools, and processes – enabling a proactive approach to security operations and threat management.

State of the Art Cybersecurity Fusion Center

Through our modern security operations center in Charlotte, NC we fuse automation and AI with human oversight to deliver continuous detection, response, and defense.
